

Coach Women's Artistic Gymnastics

Employment rate: 75-100%

Location: Malmö, Sweden

GK Motus-Salto is now looking for a coach in Women's Artistic Gymnastics who has both great technical skills and, as much important, a coaching philosophy based on athlete centred coaching. We are at a point where we are ready to take the next step and develop the discipline further. This job involves both being on the floor with the gymnasts, as well as planning practice and competition and developing the discipline together with and in close cooperation with the other coaches.

Tasks:

- Together with the existing coaching team train our high level gymnasts
- Plan practices, competitions and camps
- Participate in competitions and training camps
- Be a part in developing the organisation for women's artistic gymnastics in Motus-Salto together with other coaches, sports manager and in line with the board's vision.

We believe that you are:

- A competent leader with several years' experience as a coach within women's artistic gymnastics
- A team-player who is a natural communicator and easily builds good relationships with gymnasts, colleagues and parents
- Educated coach within women's artistic gymnastics at minimum FIG level 2 or equivalent
- Able to communicate in the Swedish or English language
- An organised and independent person
- Flexible regarding working hours as most classes are set in mornings, afternoons, evenings and weekends
- And of course passionate about gymnastics and each gymnast's individual development

About Motus-Salto:

Motus-Salto is a non-profit gymnastics club in Malmö, Sweden, with 1300 members. We offer a wide range of gymnastics like basic gymnastics for children, artistic gymnastics, and TeamGym from beginners to elite level as well as paragymnastics. Our vision is to offer both national and international competitive levels.

Motus-Salto is home of national champions in all three competitive disciplines. However, our values are clear; children should be children and have fun at gymnastics. Therefore, we work actively to counteract unfair treatment and topping, in accordance with the Convention on the Rights of the Child.

Apply for the position by sending in your CV and cover letter to info@motussalto.com preferably as soon as possible as this is an ongoing recruitment and the position might be filled earlier.
